Qualifications offered

The qualifications offered at this centre are decided by the Senior Leadership Team with agreement of the Proprietor and where appropriate Governing Body.

The types of qualifications offered are General Certificates of Secondary Education (GCSE), functional skills maths, English and ICT a range of vocational qualifications which include BTEC.

Informing the exams office of changes to a specification is the responsibility of the Head of Department. This should be done in the Summer of the current academic year for the academic year following.

Decisions on whether a candidate should be entered for a particular subject will be taken by Head of Department in consultation with the relevant member of the Senior Leadership Team.

Exam series

External exams and assessments are scheduled in January, and May/June.

The teacher with subject leadership responsibility in agreement with the Headteacher decides which exam series are used in the centre.

Exam timetables

Once confirmed, the exams officer will circulate the exam timetables at a specified date before each series begins.

Entries, entry details and late entries

Candidates or parents/carers can in agreement with the subject leaders or Senior Leadership Team request a subject entry, change of level or withdrawal.

The centre does not accept entries from private candidates, unless they are ex-students who have left school within 1 year of the requested entry at the agreement of the Exams Officer.

The centre does not act as a exams centre for other organisations.

Entry deadlines are circulated to subject leaders via email or Google Drive.

Subject leaders/curriculum will provide estimated entry information to the exams officer to meet JCQ and awarding body deadlines.

Exam fees

The exams officer will publish the deadline for action well in advance for each exams series.

All entry exam fees are paid by the centre.

Late entry or amendment fees are paid by the centre.

Re-sit fees are paid by the centre.

Equality Legislation

All exam centre staff must ensure that they meet the requirements of any equality legislation.

The centre will comply with the legislation, including making reasonable adjustments to the service that they provide candidates in accordance with requirements defined by the legislation, awarding bodies, and JCQ. This is the responsibility of the Examinations Officer under the advisement of the Senior Leadership Team.

Access arrangements

The SENCo will inform subject teachers of candidates with special educational needs and any special arrangements that individual candidates will need during the course and in any assessments/exams.

A candidate's access arrangements requirement is determined by the SENCo in agreement with the Examination Officer.

Ensuring there is appropriate evidence for a candidate's access arrangement is the responsibility of the SENCo.

Submitting completed access arrangement applications to the awarding bodies is the responsibility of the Examinations Officer.

Rooming for access arrangement candidates will be arranged by the Examinations Officer.

Invigilation and support for access arrangement candidates, as defined in the JCQ access arrangements regulations, will be organised by the Examinations Officer with the help of the Learning Support Team.

Contingency planning

Contingency planning for exams administration is the responsibility of the Examinations Officer.

Contingency plans are available via the school intranet and are in line with the guidance provided by Ofqual, JCQ and awarding organisations.

Estimated grades

Subject leaders are responsible for submitting estimated grades to the Exams Officer when requested by the Exams Officer.

Managing invigilators

Invigilators will be used for internal exams and external exams. All members of staff have received invigilation training and are used to invigilate exams that are not related to their subject area.

Malpractice

The head of centre in consultation with the Exams Officer is responsible for investigating suspected malpractice.

Exam days

The exams officer will book all exam rooms after liaison with other users and make the question papers, other exam stationery, and materials available for the invigilator.

Site management staff is responsible for setting up the allocated rooms, and will be advised of requirements at least 3 weeks in advance.

The Exams Officer or invigilator at the request of the Exams Officer will start and finish all exams in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Subject staff may be present at the start of the exam to assist with identification of candidates. Any staff present must be in accordance with the rules defined by JCQ concerning who is allowed and what they can do.

In practical exams, subject teachers' availability will be in accordance with JCQ guidelines.

Exam papers must not be read by subject teachers or removed from the exam room before the end of a session. Papers will be distributed to heads of department in accordance with JCQ's recommendations and no later than 24 hours after candidates have completed it.

After an exam, the exams officer will arrange for the safe dispatch of completed examination scripts to awarding bodies, working in conjunction with the Examinations and Data Administrator.

Candidates

The exams officer will provide written information to candidates in advance of each exam series. A formal briefing session for candidates may be given by the Senior Leadership Team.

The centre's published rules on acceptable dress and behaviour apply at all times. Candidates' personal belongings remain their own responsibility and the centre accepts no liability for their loss or damage.

In an exam room candidates must not have access to items other than those clearly allowed in the instructions on the question paper, the stationery list, or the specification for that subject. This is particularly true of mobile phones and other electronic communication or storage devices with text or digital facilities. Any precluded items must not be taken into an exam room.

Disruptive candidates are dealt with in accordance with JCQ guidelines. Candidates are expected to stay for the full exam time at the discretion of the Examinations Officer.

Note: candidates who leave an exam room must be accompanied by an appropriate member of staff at all times.

The Examinations Officer is responsible for handling late or absent candidates on exam day.

Students arriving late to an examination within 1 hour of the JCQ Official start time will be allowed to sit the exam with the full time allowance. Any students arriving very late will be allowed to sit the examination at the discretion of the Exams Officer.

Clash candidates

The Examinations Officer will be responsible as necessary for supervising escorts, identifying a secure venue and arranging overnight stays.

Special consideration

Should a candidate be unable to attend an exam because of illness, suffer bereavement or other trauma, be ill or otherwise disadvantaged or disturbed during an exam, then it is the candidate's responsibility to alert the centre's Exams Officer to that effect.

The candidate must support any special consideration claim with appropriate evidence within 6 days of the exam.

The exams officer will make a special consideration application to the relevant awarding body within 7 days of the exam.

Internal assessment

It is the duty of heads of department to ensure that all internal assessment is ready for dispatch at the correct time. The exams officer will assist by keeping a record of each dispatch, including the recipient details and the date and time sent.

Marks for all internally assessed work are provided to the exams office by a week prior to the Awarding Body deadline. The exams officer will inform staff of the date when appeals against internal assessments must be made by. Any appeals will be dealt with in accordance with the centre's Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

The submission of any internal marks electronically will be double checked by a second person within the Examinations team and a paper record of the final marks submitted will be kept for a period of 3 years.

Results

Candidates will receive individual result slips on results days,

- in person at the centre
- by post to their home address - candidates to provide self-addressed envelope
- by a nominated person as stated by the candidate on the correct form prior to the end of the summer term.

The results slip will be in the form of a centre produced document.

Arrangements for the centre to be open on results days are made by the Exams Officer.

The provision of the necessary staff on results days is the responsibility of the Senior Leadership Team.

Enquiries about Results (EAR)

EARs may be requested by centre staff or the candidate following the release of results. A request for a re-mark or clerical check requires the written consent of the candidate, a request for a re-moderation of internally assessed work may be submitted without the consent of the group of candidates.

The cost of EARs will be paid by the candidate unless agreed by the Subject leader for the cost to be covered by departmental budgets.

All decisions on whether to make an application for an EAR will be made by the candidate following advice from the Exams Officer.

If a candidate's request for an EAR is not supported, the candidate may appeal and the centre will respond by following the process in its Internal Appeals Procedure (IAP) document.

All processing of EARs will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer following the JCQ guidance.

Access to Scripts (ATS)

After the release of results, candidates may ask subject staff to request the return of written exam papers within 30 days of the receipt of results.

Centre staff may also request scripts for investigation or for teaching purposes. For the latter, the consent of candidates must be obtained.

Re-marks cannot be applied for once an original script has been returned.

The cost of ATS will be paid by the candidate unless agreed by the Subject leader for the cost to be covered by departmental budgets.

Processing of requests for ATS will be the responsibility of the Exams Officer.

Certificates

Candidates will receive their certificates

- in person at the centre, a signature will be required.

Certificates can be collected on behalf of a candidate by third parties, provided they have written authority from the candidate to do so, and bring suitable identification with them that confirms who they are. The centre retains certificates for 1 year.

A new certificate will not be issued by an awarding organisation. A transcript of results may be issued if a candidate agrees to pay the costs incurred.
